"BLUE WING'S REVENGE"

Two-Reel Universal Drama

Starring WILLIAM E. LAWRENCE

TOM BRADLEY, in love with Daphne Hill, is sent by his jealous commanding officer to learn the strength of a hostile Pawnee camp. Blue Wing, the chief's daughter, whom he has rescued from some renegade Pawnees, falls in love with him. To insure peace, Tom promises her father he will return to marry her.

Blue Wing is told by Captain Somers of Tom's love for Daphne. The captain seeks to injure Tom's standing with Daphne by telling her he saw Tom making love to the Indian girl. He takes off his insignia of rank and fights Tom. Losing to his adversary, he seeks revenge by having Tom locked up in the "brig."

Escaping from the "brig," Tom follows Daphne to the Indian camp, where she has gone to tell Blue Wing of her own love for Tom, and ask the chief's daughter to give him up. Her pride injured, Blue Wing stirs the tribe to war against the whites. Tom rescues Daphne and escapes with her. Realizing that Tom will be happier with one of his own kind, Blue Wing makes a heroic sacrifice by giving up Tom and calling off her warriors.
